

Typical views of the infilled and thoroughly compacted wetland areas where temporary housing structures have been established.

Typical views of the fringe conditions at the interface between wetland and housing structures

Typical views of the fringe conditions at the interface between wetland and housing structures

Existing portion of Houmoed Avenue in the west of the site (view towards the South)

View towards the west of the existing portion of Houmoed Avenue – i.e. off the site to the west

Existing portion of Houmoed Avenue in the west of the site (view towards the North)

View down Lekkerwater Road, taken from northern most point, looking south

View towards west taken from northern most point along Lekkerwater Road

Properties at the end of Lekkerwater Road